

How to apply for Academic research track?

1. Go to the following link: <https://developer.twitter.com/en/portal/petition/academic/is-it-right-for-you>. If the criteria fit you, start the academic research application.

Let's see if the Academic research application is right for you.

Apply as an Academic researcher if you're...

- Employed as an academic researcher, post-doc, professor, or fellow. ⓘ
- A master's student working on a thesis.
- A PhD candidate working on their dissertation.
- Affiliated with an academic institution AND have a clearly defined project. ⓘ

Start Academic Research application

For non-commercial use only. ⓘ

2. Starting with a basic information, you will need to fill out the form carefully. If some of the information is missing or incomplete, Twitter contacts you for more details via email that you provided.

1 Basic info 2 Academic profile 3 Project details 4 Review 5 Terms

This is permanent and can't be changed

What country are you based in?

Select country...

What's your current coding skill level? ⓘ

Select one

Want updates? (optional)

Don't miss the latest news and tips emailed to you.

☐ Yes, send updates.

3. This includes also the academic profile.

1 Basic info

2 Academic profile

3 Project details

4 Review

5 Terms

All fields are required unless marked optional

Full name

Write out your name as it appears on your institution's documentation.

Provide at least one (or more) of the following:

- A link to your profile in your institution's faculty directory
- A link to your Google Scholar profile
- A link to your research group, lab or departmental website

+ Add another

Academic institution

Spell out the institution name. (Ex: University of California, Berkeley)

Home country of academic institution

State, region, or province of academic institution (optional)

4. As mentioned in the video, here you need to specify the project details. This includes specifying how Twitter data will be used in your research project, how data will be processed and the methodology for analysing Twitter data, tweets and/or Twitter users.

1 Basic info 2 Academic profile 3 Project details 4 Review 5 Terms

All fields are required unless marked optional. This info can't be changed once the application has been submitted. If approved, this section will be used to create your Academic Project.

What's your research project's name?

Research project

Does this project receive funding from outside your academic institution? ⓘ

☐ Yes

☒ No

In English, describe your research project.

What's your research about?

200

In English, describe how Twitter data and/or Twitter APIs will be used in your research project.

How will you use Twitter data and/or Twitter APIs?

200

Will your research present Twitter data individually or in aggregate?

Think of it as presenting individual Tweets vs. aggregate statistics or models.

Select one

In English, describe your methodology for analyzing Twitter data, Tweets, and/or Twitter users.

What's your methodology?

200

In English, describe how you will share the outcomes of your research (include tools, data, and/or resources).

How will you share your results?

100

Will your analysis make Twitter content or derived information available to a government entity? ⓘ

☐ Yes

☒ No

Once you complete the form, it will take up to 2 days for Twitter to examine your project. Once it is approved by Twitter, you will have access to Academic research track.